STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist® Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 2014 (including year-end membership statistics for 2015)

ABOUT THIS REPORT: A RECORD YEAR FOR CHURCH GROWTH

About this Edition of the ASR. This, the 152nd annual report of Seventh-day Adventist statistics, publishes membership and congregational statistics as of December 31, 2015, and institutional, financial, and personnel statistics as of December 31, 2014. Because the Global Mission Tables draw on a combination of membership, congregational, and personnel statistics, those tables (pp. 86–91) report data from 2014. The report includes color charts illustrating key statistics and statistical trends (pp. 5–6), as well as the color map of the 10/40 Window (p. 92).

A Growing Church. 2015 was a landmark year for Adventist church growth: the total of 1,260,880 people who became Seventh-day Adventists by baptism and profession of faith was a new record for total accessions in a calendar year (see Chart 1). This was the fourteenth year in all and the twelfth year in succession in which more than a million new members joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church. On average, across the year, there were 144 new accessions every hour, or, as Chart 4 displays, the equivalent of 3,452 new church members per day. Thus, every day in 2015 was like the day of Pentecost in the numbers of believers added to the Seventh-day Adventist Church. A daily average of 3,000-plus accessions was first attained only in 2007 (though the church came close in 1999), and since then has been repeated in 2011, 2012, 2014 and now 2015 (cf. Chart 4).

The net result is that the global population to church member ratio continues to improve, as shown in Chart 5 (which tracks the annual population:member ratio over the last twenty-five years). At the end of 2015 there were 384 people, worldwide, to every Seventh-day Adventist. In other words, global church growth continues to exceed the growth in the world's population.

Growing Churches. Another area of significant growth is in local congregations (churches and companies); successful church planting is a large part of the reason for the dozen years of million-plus accessions in membership. Chart 3 illustrates the numbers of new congregations organized each year over the past five years. The 2015 total of 3,438 is the eighth highest annual total ever and the highest since 2011. Looking only at the number of new local churches (i.e., not including companies), 2,742 new churches were organized in 2015: another new record for a calendar year (2014 was the previous record!).

Membership Audits. There was a tailing off, in 2015, in the global program of membership audits, probably due to the General Conference Session. As Chart 1 shows, the number of people taken off the membership rolls was just over half a million in 2015, as compared to just over three-quarters of a million in 2014. The audit program, however, will continue—and needs to continue, as Chart 2 reveals.

As noted in the preface to last year's report, a key metric in checking the accuracy of membership statistics is the mortality rate: the number of deaths per thousand people in a population. By comparing Adventist mortality rates with those of the population as a whole in any given territory, it is possible to get a good sense of whether the reported membership is credible. Chart 2 compares Adventist to general mortality rates in the church's thirteen world divisions and two attached fields; it reveals that in many divisions the Adventist mortality rate is far lower than the general mortality rate, to such an extent that the difference cannot be accounted for by the Adventist health advantage. Several divisions are now closer to a credible mortality rate than in 2011 when Annual Council encouraged all divisions to implement comprehensive audits. Many unions, however, have still not yet completed audits; when they do, we anticipate that mortality rates will become more realistic. Throughout this quinquennium, audits will continue to suppress net growth rates as they identify and deduct those who may have left some time ago, but whose departure was not picked up at the time. The effect of these audits is illustrated in Chart 1.

Revised Tables. This is the second year in which the "Missionaries" table (Table 19) has used different metrics, to give a more accurate count of the number of missionaries in service. In 2014 a total of 5,816 missionaries were in service (either as cross-cultural missionaries or working with previously unreached people groups). We thank God for the willingness of these church members to leave their homes and go outside their comfort zones, in order to help proclaim the gospel and the prophetic messages of the angels of Revelation 14.

In addition, a major change to Tables 20, 21, and 24, which report employee statistics, reflects a significant shift in denominational policy: all categories of employees are now broken down into full-time, part-time, and (where applicable) casual employees. This reflects the fact that Working Policy (E 10 80) has been amended, allowing divisions to issue credentials to part-time employees (previously Policy only provided for credentials to be awarded to full-time workers).

Thus far, three divisions plus the General Conference have chosen to issue credentials to part-time employees.

Finally, Table 31, “Languages and Dialects in Which SDA Publications Are Now in Print” has been changed since last year. Languages are now grouped by division, rather than in one alphabetical list. Within each division, all languages in which church organizations within that territory produce printed materials (books, magazines, newsletters, etc.) are listed in alphabetical order, and then the countries in which they are printed.

Attendance. This is the fourth Report to include statistics on church attendance and it is important to note that not all regions of the world have, as yet, fully implemented counting attendance at Sabbath School and divine service. We hope that, by the end of the quinquennium, attendance figures will be broadly accurate; but for the moment, though in some divisions counting is done comprehensively, total figures for attendance are not yet reliable in many unions and, consequently, in most divisions. A final point about attendance, one that experience suggests is not widely understood: Sabbath School attendance had been counted for many years, but was published under the heading “Sabbath School membership.” This nominal total membership of Sabbath Schools was actually the total number of attendees (in contrast to those holding church membership). We look forward to receiving and publishing accurate numbers for the totals regularly attending Seventh-day Adventist church services, including Sabbath School.

ADVENTIST DEVELOPMENT AND RELIEF AGENCY (ADRA)

The Adventist Development and Relief Agency (ADRA) acts as the humanitarian arm of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and is active in over 130 countries, broken down into 10 regions below. In 2014, the funds for program support and implementation were in excess of US $180,000,000. In addition, over $22,201,193 worth of gifts in kind were received. The ADRA network is comprised of 5,622 staff and 20,843 volunteers. The investment of resources, both monetary and otherwise, resulted in the implementation of 7,733 projects that impacted 14,787,780 people.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 2015 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the West Congo Union Mission of the East-Central Africa Division the Lower Congo Field has a population of 6.2 million and five churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 1.2 million people. Progress is indicated in the fact that in 1997, when this field was organized, each church served an average of 3.4 million people.

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to the Adventist "presence." (For a definition of "presence" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

A column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990 or When Organized" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook or the Yearbook representing the year of the field's organization after 1990. In some cases the 2014 ratio is larger than the earlier ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are being eliminated year by year as church growth occurs.

The number of churches is taken from the 2015 edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-2014 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Seventh-day Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows church-planting activity and general growth, including the number of ordained ministers, churches, companies, and members, for each country.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Seventh-day Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions.

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world?" For the purposes of this report, it is a political or geographical entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries and areas shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nations Statistics Division, Standard Country and Area Codes Classifications (M49) list, with changes through 6 November 2013. (Exception: Taiwan is not listed in the United Nations publication.) Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational employee is based in the country or area carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, employees traveling through, or temporary service by regular employees, student missionaries, or other volunteer employees. Countries or areas where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 87.

The "number of countries and areas of the world" as listed by the United Nations as of 6 November 2013 is 240. Our count is 237 because we do not count Hong Kong SAR or Macao SAR (or Taiwan) since they are considered part of China (except for the purposes of GM Table 3, where all three are counted); and we do not include Sark as it is part of the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Symbols Used in Table 2:

- + Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
- Decrease in growth.
- () Negative number.

GLOBAL MISSION

(GM) Table 3

10/40 Window

Matthew 24:14: “And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.” NIV
 The 10/40 Window describes a rectangular-shaped region of the world map in the eastern hemisphere between the 10 and 40 northern lines of latitude, which includes North Africa, the Middle East, and Asia, where more than 60% of the world’s population live. This region is home to some of the largest people groups who do not have access to the Gospel message. The majority of the world’s least evangelized countries and a great number of the poor are within the 10/40 Window. It contains three of the world’s dominant religions: Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism, plus the non-religious. Much of this region also has Biblical and historical significance.

Note 1—Per Capita after 1921 decreased because of inflated European currency values transposed to gold basis.
 Note 3—Total General Employees column does not include credentialed and licensed literature evangelists.

Note 2—As of 2008, 'Unions of Churches' are being counted as unions, no longer as local conferences.
 Note 4—As of 2014, credentialed employee counts include both full-time and some part-time credentialed employees.
